ASU TESOL for faculty members in the ASU/Cintana Alliance: guidelines

Important guidelines (I)

Faculty members in the ASU/Cintana Alliance

- This program is intended for faculty members who teach or will teach English language courses at the ASU/Cintana Alliance member institutions; it is not a program to learn English. These faculty members must be currently part of the member institution at the time of registration.
- Participants must be nominated by their institutions' respective managers and inform the Cintana teams (Academic and Support teams), accordingly. Nominated participants in this program must confirm and ensure that they are fully aware of the details and requirements of the program. Nominations take place via the TESOL application form
- Participants must have an institutional email address for the duration of the program. Invitations to join courses in Coursera will only be sent to an official institutional email address. By "institutional" it refers to the email address used by the member institution of the ASU/Cintana Alliance.
- Participants should plan to dedicate at least 5 weekly hours of study to successfully complete the courses. Please consider the bandwidth and availability to study before enrolling in the program.
- This program is free of charge for nominated faculty members in the ASU/Cintana Alliance member institutions that meet the eligibility criteria.

Dates and deadlines:

- Once participants have registered via the provided registration link, they must accept ALL invitations they receive. They will first receive 4 email invitations for each one of the four courses in Part 1 in their institutional email. Upon successful completion of part 1, they will receive the invitations for the 4 courses in part 2.
- Dates and deadlines for each of the 8 courses are provided in the Program Calendar Information Sheet for each Cohort. Participants are expected to add to their calendar and plan their learning and assignment deadlines around them. They may complete each course at their own pace, but please note that if the courses are not completed within the assigned date range for each part, all progress will be lost, and participants will need to restart from the beginning if they wish to be re-enrolled.
- Enrolment in Part 2 is automatic for those who successfully complete Part 1.
