Faculty Development

ASU TESOL

The first and only completely online TESOL
Certification program provided by a major
American university on Coursera

Online faculty development opportunity for English language faculty, facilitated by Cintana and based on ASU's TESOL Professional Certificate Program offered on Coursera.

English faculty members can enjoy a truly international learning community with participants from Cintana Alliance universities.

This program is designed for anyone who wants to enhance their English teaching skills. English teachers will be internationally and professionally certified to teach English to any categories of learners, to add credentials to their resume by creating a professional teaching portfolio, as well as to join the Cintana Community of English Professionals. Upon the completion of the program, the learners will receive the Arizona State University 150-hour TESOL Certificate.

QUALITY

- ✓ #1 TESOL Program in Coursera
- ✓ 4.9 out of 5 stars according to student ratings
- ✓ Designed in compliance with the standards outlined by the TESOL International Association
