Faculty Mobility

This program offers faculty members currently teaching at one of the Cintana Alliance institutions to teach and/or research in any of the other partner institutions as full-time faculty for one or two semesters. The objective of the program is to open the opportunity for Cintana Alliance faculty to experience a meaningful and transformative international assignment within their tenure at their home institution.

Benefits

- ✓ Faculty engagement, development, collaboration, mutual support, and inspiration
- ✓ An internationalized career
- ✓ Exposure to and sharing of best practices
- ✓ Joint research projects and publications
- ✓ Add value to your student's international experience
- ✓ Reputation, accreditation, and rankings of institutions
- ✓ Increased skills to deliver courses in English

Program Modalities

Modality 1

Faculty joins a host institution for a minimum of one semester up to a maximum of two years. Their basic assignment includes teaching and research, and if mutually agreed, a management role.

Modality 2

Faculty visits a host Institution for a short term for training purposes or to explore opportunities to create joint programs and/or joint research initiatives.

Modality 3

Faculty visits a host Institution as the leader of a group of home institution students for a short international academic experience.
